

Name _____ Date _____

End of Unit 5 test

Vocabulary 1

Use a word from the box to complete the sentences.

efficient	renewable	solar	geothermal	station	emissions
population	friendly	neutral	volcanoes	hydro

Example:

- 0 An energy- efficient home is one which uses as little energy as possible.
- 1 Many experts think that feeding a rising world will soon be a problem.
- 2 A power is a huge building or site where electricity is produced.
- 3 A -powered phone charger uses energy from the sun.
- 4 Carbon- countries are those that don't add any carbon overall to the atmosphere.
- 5 A energy source is one that can be used again and again, like the sun.
- 6 If a country doesn't produce any carbon at all, it has zero carbon
- 7 Electricity created using water in rivers and dams is called power.
- 8 In the future, heat from may be used to produce power.
- 9 Governments create eco-..... policies to help the environment.
- 10 Some places create power using heat from underground – power.

[Total: 10 marks]

Grammar 1

There is one mistake in each of the sentences.

Write each sentence out correctly.

Example:

- 0 The rainforest is one for the most biodiverse places on earth.

The rainforest is one of the most biodiverse places on Earth......

- 11 Many of the electricity in this country is still produced from gas and coal.

.....

- 12 The sea is full of brightly coloured beautiful fish.

.....

- 13 Every one of a world's remaining tigers needs to be saved.

.....

- 14 There aren't a lots of different birds around where I live.

.....

- 15 They never see some rare animals in the forest near their home.

.....

[Total: 5 marks]

Grammar 2

Here are some sentences about the future.

For each question, use will and the passive to complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use no more than four words.

Example:

- 0 Students will do all their lessons on the internet.

All lessons will be done on the internet.

- 16 In the future, garages won't sell petrol or diesel cars anymore.

Petrol or diesel cars in garages in the future.

- 17 Robots and computers will replace people in many jobs.

People by robots and computers in many jobs.

- 18 People will need only one electronic device, which will do everything they want.

Only one electronic device, which will do everything people want.

- 19 People won't do their shopping in shopping centres.

Shopping in shopping centres.

- 20 People will use green energy to cook meals.

Green energy to cook meals.

[Total: 5 marks]

Vocabulary 2

Here are some sentences about natural resources.

Choose the best word for each space.

For each question, circle the correct letter, A, B or C.

Example:

0 machines use a large amount of water.

A Washer

(B) Washing

C Wash

21 Farming, or as it's also known, uses large quantities of water to grow crops.

A irrigation

B desalination

C agriculture

22 water is water that doesn't have lots of salt in it.

A Fresh

B Clear

C Soft

23 Some countries have plants which remove salt from water so we can drink it.

A desalination

B agriculture

C irrigation

24 water is water that's clean and safe enough for people to consume.

A Drinkage

B Drinking

C Drink

25 A long period when no rain falls is called a

A glacier

B desert

C drought

26 Scientists are worried that a lot of the ice in is melting, which causes the level of oceans to rise.

A glaciers

B wells

C droughts

- 27 When farmers take water from rivers and lakes and use it to help their crops to grow, this is called
A drought B desalination C irrigation
- 28 The amount of in some countries is rising, so they are wetter, while in other countries it is falling.
A sea water B rainfall C drought
- 29 It's possible to create water we can drink from by taking the salt out of it.
A fresh water B sea water C drinking water
- 30 If there is very little rain in a region, then the that people have dug in the ground there will have no water in them.
A wells B irrigation C desalination plants

[Total: 10 marks]

Grammar 3

Use the conjunctions in the box to complete the sentences.

while	so that	in order to	whereas	although	in order to
-------	---------	-------------	---------	----------	-------------

Example:

0 While energy use is a worldwide problem, we can all make a difference.

31 We need to reduce energy use help the environment.

32 Coal, oil and gas will soon run out solar and wind energy are renewable.

33 We can use more renewable energy less carbon dioxide enters the atmosphere.

34 energy use is still rising, it is increasing more slowly than before.

35 Farmers need lots of water grow crops.

[Total: 5 marks]

Grammar 4

Use past modals (should have, would have, etc.) to complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use between three and four words.

Example:

- 0 I wish I had recycled those bottles!

I should have recycled those bottles.

- 36 I wanted to plant some trees today but the weather wasn't good enough.

If the weather had been good enough today, I some trees.

- 37 It was possible for us to watch that nature documentary last night but I didn't know you were free.

We that nature documentary last night but I didn't know you were free.

- 38 I'm really sorry I invited so many people to the presentation.

I so many people to the presentation.

- 39 They needed to borrow some money in order to buy solar panels.

They their solar panels without borrowing some money.

- 40 I don't think you'd enjoy the programme I saw because you hate sport.

You the programme I saw last night because you hate sport.

[Total: 5 marks]